LINDERMAN & SON

Remains of Murdered Man Are Miss Farley Breaks Down After Found by Searching Party.

Arrest Charged With the Crime.

Warsaw, N. Y., November 21.-The cheese factory at Union Corners, was found to-day in a shallow grave on a farm near the village of North Java. Althos Prince, thirty-five years old, a farmer and neighbor of Bentley, and Louis and Harry Webber, Prince's brothers-in-law, are held to-night by the sheriff in connection with the crime. Prince, who is a married man, admits, according to the sheriff, that he had had some words with Bentley over domestic affairs, but denies all knowledge of his death.

On Saturday afternoon Bentley told Mrs. Alonzo Hicks, with whom he boarded, that he was going hunting. When he failed to appear at his work Monday mornins, and inquiries failed to disclose his whereabouts, parties were organized and a systematic search of the woods was begun. Yesterday afternoon on the Woodhousefarm the searchers found blood-spottered leaves and a pool of blood. There was a deep track also, appearntly made by a wheelbarrow that evidently had carried a heavy load.

The sheriff, after questioning Prince, ordered him locked up, and seized wheelbarrow and a pair of overalls found in Prince's barn. They were covered with red stains. To-day searchers followed buggy tracks from a lot on Prince's farm to a clump of lot on Prince's barn. They were covered with red stains. CONFERENCE SEASIONS CLOSE.

Greensbore, N. C. November 21.—The sighty-seventh annual session of the Christian Church of Virginia and North Carolina came to a close to-night. The 19th conference seesion will meet with the Semora. The feature of to-day's session of the conference was a discussion of home and foreign mission reports, which called for greater contributions. The report also called upon the conference to memorialize the executive committee of the American Christian Convention "to inquire late the real causes for constantly increasing indebtedness of the mission treasury, the apparent lack of interest in missions at home, and the slow progress in the foreign field."

she was trembling and very nervous. She broke down and sobbed, and had to be helped from the chair to the witness room, where she was allowed to rest for a few minutes.

The prosecution then began its rebuttal, and introduced an expert, who declared that he had made expertments, and that pewder marks could he seen from human flesh from a revolver twenty-six inches distance.

The defense had made expertments, and that pewder marks could not be seen on flesh from a gun held more than six forms and the slow progress in the foreign field."

TWO AVIATORS KILLED

The seed and Andre Frey and Lieutenant Laurent Have Patal Accidents.

Rheims, November 21.—Two aviators were F'lled to-day, one Andre Frey, at Rheims, and the other Lieutenant Laurent, at Etampes.

Frey finished th'rd in the international aviation race at Chicago in September of this year. To-day he was undergoing military training.

He stopped his ensine at a height of about $90 feet and planed down until within 150 feet of the ground. Then suddenly the right wing of the monoplane shot up and the machine dropped to earth. Frey was badly crushed. The cause of the accident is unknown. Lieutenant Laurent and Sapper Chenu were making a flight near Etampes at a speed of s'xty miles an hour when a squall came up and caught the aeroplane as the pilot attempted to make a sharp turn and dashed it to the ground. Laurent was killed. but Chenu escaped with slight injuries.
